State Code of Ethics On-line Presentation

Cost: none

A half-hour on-line presentation covering the Code of Ethics in state law. Includes situations for you to consider how the law applies.

This training satisfies the requirements of the State Ethics Policy for all state employees. You don't need to register for the training, and you can participate at any time. To listen to the content of the presentation, you may need external speakers or a headset, otherwise you will only be able to read the closed captioning.
